State law requires that your property be assessed at 40% of its fair market value as-of January 1st of each year. Your feedback is important in determining the type of and demand for services needed by the public.

Assessor Manuals

Metadata does accompany each shapefile.

Assessor

This sense of ownership is renewed every few years, when the standards are reviewed and revised by the users themselves. It is a moment when we collectively restate our commitments and agree on improved action to make sure that practitioners have the best information available to them wherever they may work. The office is responsible for adhering to strict certification requirements of the Department of Revenue.
