In wet conditions, he edged Gatlin by eight hundredths of a second with 9. He believed this demand to be based on an entirely false concept of the relationship between means and ends, on the erroneous assumption that from good will come only good, from evil only evil. Comin' at ya with ten outta ten, got a real rough neck! It is based on fears which have a grip on all of us, and which often prevent us from visualizing the direction in which our society is moving.

Usain Bolt

They are especially revealing with regard to the question of participation, which is our immediate concern. It may be questioned whether the relations between the serfs and their masters were as reciprocal, and whether as strong a solidarity existed between them, as Bloch and especially Homans contend.
