The Complete Book of Gerry Anderson's UFO. The series' main cast of characters are the staff of a secret, high-technology international military agency called SHADO an acronym for Supreme Headquarters Alien Defence Organisation established by the governments of the , the , the , and Germany believed to be as the city of is mentioned along with Washington, Paris and Moscow to defend Earth and humanity against the mysterious aliens and learn more about them, while at the same time keeping the threat of an alien invasion hidden from the public.

It really is hard to fault. It is established early on that SHADO personnel rotate between positions, so the occasional disappearance of characters—some of whom would later return in other positions—fits in with the concept of the series. Straker and Henderson clash frequently over the needs of SHADO and economic realities.
