She ends up sneaking into Jun'ichi's room for some clues on what to get him and discovers Jun'ichi's stash of dirty magazines. In the anime, during the investigation of No.

Yume no Kakera

I wonder if this kind of stuff really happens in Japan, because it happens an awful damn lot in anime and manga. Finally finding the words to convey her feelings, she told him how devoid of any will to carry on she was, having lost her duty and hatred towards the ghouls. Uriel then decided that he wanted to listen to Akira's story before judging her and told his squad to attend to her immediately once they were done with Floppy.

Akira Mado

When Shimoguchi considers the Quinx Squad as inept investigators, Akira takes up the challenge to have the Quinx identify Torso in ten days, something Shimoguchi had been doing for three months, just to prove him wrong.
