Masjid al

Taken together, the poems of the Mu‘allaqāt provide an excellent picture of life, manners, and modes of thought. The idea of grouping together these particular poems is most commonly attributed to , who was an 8th-century collector of early poetry. The lunette of tiles over the door, the minaret above the entrance, and the sabil-kuttab belong to a structure built here by 'Abd al-Rahman Katkhunda in the eighteenth century.
