Examiners are to transmit their lists at least once a month to the appropriate state or local officials, who in turn are required to place the listed names on the official voting rolls. Another is that PM-23 could not be fairly applied to Professor van Heerden at all, regardless of his title. Courts generally were reluctant to identify privacy rights absent clear statutory grounding, particularly after the Louisiana Supreme Court decision in Capital City Press v.

Academic Freedom and Tenure: Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge

In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena, any district court of the United States or the United States court of any territory or possession, or the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, within the jurisdiction of which said person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or is domiciled or transacts business, or has appointed an agent for receipt of service of process, upon application by the Attorney General of the United States shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the Commission or a hearing officer, there to produce pertinent, relevant, and nonprivileged documentary evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony touching the matter under investigation; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as a contempt thereof. This measure was approved by some states, but the war cut short the effort. Social Security numbers and private telephone numbers also are exempt from disclosure.

Open Government Guide Louisiana

For persons applying for the special assessment whose filing status is married filing separately, the adjusted gross income for purposes of this Section shall be determined by combining the adjusted gross income on both federal tax returns.

Woody Jenkins

This was clearly a legitimate response to the problem, for which there is ample precedent under other constitutional provisions.

Article VII, Louisiana Constitution

For four years, Roemer struggled to be a reform governor of Louisiana as so many had before him. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this constitution to the contrary, such amounts, and investment earnings attributable to such amounts, shall remain to the credit of each recipient entity at the close of each fiscal year.
