Developing God Confidence

This is an interesting dynamic, really. It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man. What does the Bible teach about confidence? We can trust that He made us unique for a purpose, and we can seek to live out that purpose through His power and grace, and do so with confidence.

Self

Collins Martin Collins admonishes that we desperately need to avoid shallow thinking and distractions, developing spiritual depth by meditating using mental exercise and effort upon God's creation, His truth, His Law and His standards of morality and righteousness. And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments.
