campaign

And the conservative justices have raised no objection to other limits on the quantity of speech, such as limits on the number of picketers.

Citizens United v. FEC

The court affirmed its position on independent expenditures, ruling they do not directly affect campaigns or candidates and must be allowed as free speech. They also convinced fellow justices to back away from their previous tendency to second-guess congressional motives.

Tillman Act of 1907

In order to enact this monumental amendment to our Constitution, we need two-thirds of the Senate and the House to propose it and three-fourths of the states to ratify it. The Supreme Court was under considerable pressure to act quickly; the first federal campaign funds for the 1976 election were due to be paid out to candidates on Jan.

Campaign Finance Reform

The group wanted to air the documentary during the 2008 presidential primary season through a cable television video-on-demand service and to advertise for it on television.

Campaign Finance and the Supreme Court

From 2010 to 2018, super PACs spent approximately $1.4 billion on federal elections.
