Winthrop

The Covenant is kept by the elect, the right people, and the smug delusion of sanctity could be kept alive only by shutting out notice of or any feelings of guilt toward the others, the non-elect, such as Native Americans, non-WASP immigrants, slaves, and the wrongly accused and punished, who are just collateral damage. The first ministers in Virginia -- usually cited as the antithesis of New England -- were also Puritans.

By voluntary efforts, societies, missions, and revivals, they exert a deeper influence than ever they could by queues, and shoe-buckles, and cocked hats, and gold-headed canes.

America began in a covenant with God

John Leland Baptist minister John Leland played a key role in the struggle for religious liberty in both Virginia and Connecticut. Puritans like Winthrop were persecuted.

A Model of Christian Charity

Bumping and rubbing to the dustwrapper edges on the verso of the dustwrapper the remains of tape which was used to hold down a plastic covering to the dustwrapper There is also some writing to the verso of the front fold over panel. The characters of the stories are different members of the Winthrop family but only John and Wait Still are modeled on actual persons.
