The Irish Sea

This includes Armourer Michael Meyler from Wexford who was 55 years old when he died, and noted as a pensioner, and Petty Officer James John Beauchamp who was 48 when he died.

Sinking of the RMS Lusitania

Beside the CUNARD advertisement was a notice: NOTICE! The British Foreign Office obtained a copy of the medal, photographed it, and sent copies to the United States where it was published in the New York Times on 5 May 1916. From Brazil the telegrams could travel throughout north and south America making use of cables over which the British had no control. The statistics do nothing to help us understand the terror that was brought to sailors and their families in these waters, because no one knew about them.

The Famous Sinking of the Lusitania

On 6 May, U-20 fired a torpedo at Cayo Romano from Cuba, a British steamer flying a neutral flag, off narrowly missing by a few feet.

SM UC

Following the 1914 practice of Room 40 , he contacted lecturers at Oxford and Cambridge including Alan Turing and Gordon Welchman asking if they would be willing to serve if war broke out.
