Duchambon was even reluctant to send for help, fearing the message would be intercepted and spark further unrest. A History of the Cutter family of New England.

Siege of Annapolis Royal (1744)

Had even one French ship of the line intercepted, she could have blown the few small American warships out of the water and sunk the transports at leisure. Highest on the list were low soldier morale and crumbling fort walls rebuilt with wood.

Siege of Louisbourg (1745)

It is interesting to note that Colonel Shubael Gorham spent all his money and many years of his life founding the town of Gorham Maine.

Siege of Annapolis Royal (1744)

He set lumbermen, farmers, and carpenters to constructing sledges, six-feet-by-five, like the familiar stone boats used to clear New England fields of rocks.
