For our Very Very Special Special edition, we went back to the first generation album master there was, of course, no way to change the mix or the generous amount of reverb used, but our masterful mastering engineer, James Nelson, has worked as much magic as humanly possible to optimize the sound present on those original album masters. For the TV segments which look as if they were originally videotaped , walk-around theme park versions of the characters frolicked on the Sailing Ship Columbia at Disneyland Park. Who doesn't love the music Disney has given us over the years? Along the way, the book traces the recording adventures of such Disney favorites as Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, Cinderella, Bambi, Jiminy Cricket, Winnie the Pooh, and even Walt Disney himself.
